

BEACON '73

THE COLLEGE GAME

Equipment consists of the enclosed Gameboard with spaces representing the various phases of your encounter with college life. There are two Dice; various Tokens, including "Herman Hippie," "Andy Administrator," "Jacob Jock," "Helen Homecoming," and "Sonny Slow;" and a stack of excuses. Other essentials include your class schedule and a considerable amount of patience.

The winner of the game is the player who can complete the game with the least amount of effort or trouble. Or maybe the winner is the player who gets the best education and manages to become involved in the largest amount of extracurricular activities. The loser is the player who tries to slide by with a bunch of bull. Or maybe the loser is the player who cannot successfully complete the game, in which case he is labeled a dropout and must obtain a new attitude before he is allowed to play again.

To play the game, each player must have in his possession a high school diploma or G.E.D. and also must have stood in line the required two hours attempting to get his I.D. picture taken. The player may then place his token on the board and may move the number of spaces indicated by a roll of the dice. There is no limit on the number of players who can play. If a player's token lands on a space with directions printed on it, he must follow those directions. If his token lands on an Excuse space, he must draw an excuse card and follow the directions printed on the card. If a player fails to follow directions, he will be sent before the campus Disciplinary Committee.

If a player is injured while playing (such as spraining his wrist while rolling the dice) he will be taken care of by the RN's and LPN's in which case he may not be able to return to play.

Please maintain courtesy and patience while playing. Tipping over the gameboard or scattering equipment is a sign of immaturity and may result in action by the Disciplinary Committee. Remember it's not just a game!

EXCUSES

PROFESSOR SMART,

Sorry I'm late for class. As I was walking down Riverside Avenue, a dog bit my leg, then a car splashed water on me, then a bee stung me, and a squirrel chased me away from the school.

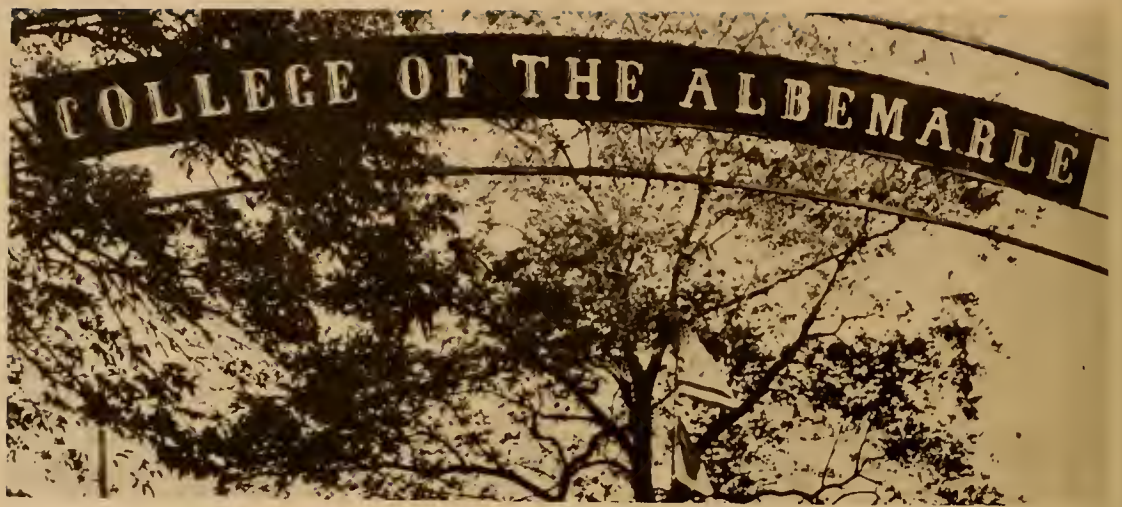

DEAR TEACHER,

Sorry, I didn't do well on my test. Yesterday I lost all of my notes, my book, my clipboard and paper, and my ink pen. To top it off, my girlfriend came by last night and I just couldn't get rid of her.

COACH,

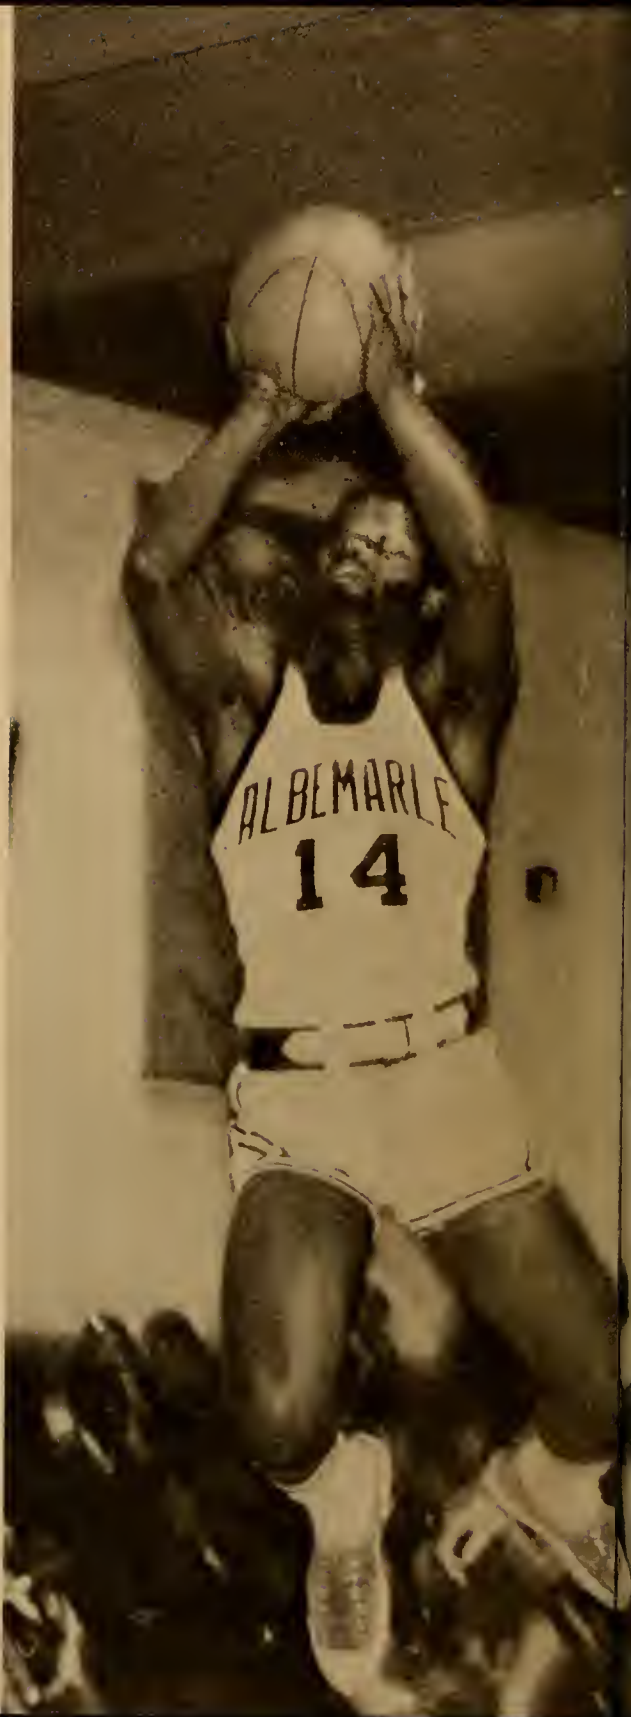

I can't possibly run the cross country today. I have pleurisy, an ingrown toenail, athlete's foot, a trick knee, a floating rib, psoriasis, acne, and a bad hangnail.

This concludes our version of the COLLEGE GAME. We have attempted to view college life through a mixture of humor and reality, and in doing so pass on events of the past year that have occurred around the College of The Albemarle. Now that our game has ended it is time for you to make your own decisions concerning your future. Whether you advance or are forced to fall back may depend primarily on how well you were able to play the COLLEGE GAME.
